We understand that atmong other grounds of contest, Mr. Combs alcges ire gularities in Duncannon, Bear wollow and Biggerstati precincts. The exact allegations which Mr. (ombs oposes to prove, we mic not able ac nrately to give, not having seen his papers before they were filed on Satur-lay. We understand, however, that ie will ask that Bearwallow precint be thrown out because the election was not held by secret ballot, but that vot-Ing was done openly in disregard of he election law. At Duncannon seven were thrown out, two of which were Republicans, because a pencil was sed instend of the regulation stencil. This and other alleged "distinguishing marks" caused the officers to throw out those ballots, the Democrats losing five votes thereby. The trouble in Biggerstaff was that the ballots gave out and nineleen Democrats and six Republicans did not vote at all.
